

ARNOLD'S LOCAL SERIES.

The idea of this series is that children in different parts of the United Kingdom may learn during the impressionable years of their school life something of the events that have made their own district famous, may learn to love their local traditions and admire their local heroes, and thus be incited to take a part themselves by-and-by in promoting and maintaining the honour of the district or county to which it is their pride to belong.

THE FOLLOWING ARE NOW READY.

About 250 pages. Cloth. 1s. 6d.

THE STORY OF LANCASHIRE.

THE STORY OF YORKSHIRE.

THE STORY OF THE MIDLANDS.

THE STORY OF WALES.

THE STORY OF SCOTLAND.

THE STORY OF LONDON.

THE STORY OF THE WEST COUNTRY.

[Nearly ready.]

Each volume is of a comprehensive character, dealing with Geography, History, and Industrial Progress. Special pains have been taken with the Maps and Illustrations, which number about sixty in each volume. Brief explanatory notes are given at the end.

A HISTORY FOR JUNIORS.

THE STORY OF ENGLAND.

By MRS. E. M. SYMES,

Author of "The Story of Lancashire," "The Story of London," etc.

WITH NUMEROUS ILLUSTRATIONS.

Cloth, Crown 8vo. 2s. 6d.

EDWARD ARNOLD, 37 BEDFORD STREET, STRAND, LONDON,