

BIBLIOGRAPHY

The following books are suggested to the student for further reading. All are of moderate price, or likely to be available in a good public library.

GENERAL HISTORIES

- C. SEIGNOBOS. Political History of Contemporary Europe.
C. A. FYFFE. History of Modern Europe.
G. P. GOOCH. History of Our Time, 1885-1913.
The Cambridge Modern History.

FRANCE

A good comprehensive book is wanting. The following are all excellent for their particular subjects :

- A. AULARD. Political History of the French Revolution.
H. A. L. FISHER. Napoleon.
Bonapartism. (Particularly useful for the Second Empire.)
G. HANOTAUX. Contemporary France. (1870-82.)

GERMANY

- BISMARCK. Recollections and Reminiscences. (Written after the author's retirement. Extremely interesting, but his statements are not always to be taken at their face value.)
J. W. HEADLAM. Bismarck.
K. MARX. Revolution and Reaction in Germany and Austria. (A contemporary account, written from the extreme revolutionary standpoint, of the movements of 1848.)

ITALY

- BOLTON KING. History of Italian Unity. (The best comprehensive work.)
Life of Mazzini.
