

AIDS TO THE TEACHING OF HISTORY

I.—HISTORICAL ALBUMS.

Edited by C. L. THOMSON.

THESE Albums, which carry out the idea which has already found expression in France in the Albums Historiques of M. Parmentier, are intended to be placed in the hands of the pupil as companions to whatever text-book in English History may be used. Each Album consists of sixteen pages, and contains sixteen to twenty pictures taken mainly from contemporary sources, and illustrating the Ecclesiastical and Domestic Architecture, Social Life, Persons, and Important Incidents of a particular period.

NOW READY.

SERIES I.—Covering the Period from 1272-1399.

- Part I. ECCLESIASTICAL ARCHITECTURE.
- Part II. DOMESTIC ARCHITECTURE.
- Parts III. and IV. SOCIAL LIFE.
- Part V. MONUMENTS AND PAINTINGS OF FAMOUS PERSONS.
- Part VI. PICTURES OF SCENES, &c., CONNECTED WITH PARTICULAR INCIDENTS.

PRICE IN PAPER COVER SIXPENCE EACH PART.

II.—WALL PICTURES FOR HISTORY LESSONS.

These Pictures are large enough to be seen from the back of an ordinary class-room, but size is not aimed at so much as distinctness. The Pictures are printed in flat colours, varnished, on stout paper, 23 inches x 18 inches in size, with metal rims top and bottom.
