

PART II
1485—1689

HENRY VII., 1485—1509 (24 years).

Title: See page 3.

Married, Elizabeth of York.

SUMMARY OF REIGN.

SECTION I.—ACCESSION OF HENRY VIII.

Henry's first measures. His right to the throne. His home policy.

SECTION II.—THE YORKIST REBELLIONS.

Causes. Lord Lovell's Rebellion. Lambert Simnel's Rebellion. Court of Star Chamber established. Perkin Warbeck's Rebellion; Warbeck appears in Ireland, and subsequently in France and Burgundy; he makes an attempt on England, and afterwards withdraws to Flanders; the Treaty of Magnus Intercursus; Warbeck goes to Scotland; rebellion in Cornwall; execution of Warbeck and Warwick.

SECTION III.—RELATIONS WITH FOREIGN COUNTRIES AND MISCELLANEOUS FACTS.

War with France and Treaty of Etaples. Relations with Scotland, under James III. and James IV. Relations with Spain. Relations with the Archduke Philip. Affairs in Ireland; Poyning's Law. Henry's Death and Character. His means of raising money. Maritime Enterprise. The New Learning. The Art of Printing. The Law of Entail.