

Some of the modern wonders of electricity.

The Washington Arch in New York illuminated by the electric light.

An electric railway train.

Professor Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, speaking over the first long-distance line between New York and Chicago.

A wireless telegraph station

A trolley-car.

