

Handwritten text in blue ink, possibly a signature or a list of names, located in the center of the page. The text is faint and difficult to decipher due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper.

Handwritten text in red ink, possibly a date or a signature, located in the lower center of the page. The text is also faint and difficult to decipher.